

Will You Still Need Me When I'm 64 (and More)?

Strengthening Social Security and Medicare for Ourselves and Future Generations

Thursday, June 27, 6:00 – 8:00 p.m.
Evergreen State College, Tacoma Campus, Lyceum
1210 6th Avenue, Tacoma 98405

Join Puget Sound Advocates for Retirement Action, Pierce County Committee to talk about the present and future of Social Security and Medicare and explore options for how we can ensure these programs are around not only for ourselves, but for retirees long into the future.

Featured Speaker:

April Sims
President of the Washington State Labor Council (WSLC)

April made history when she became the first woman to lead the WSLC and the first Black woman elected to lead any state labor federation.
